Electors' rights under the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004

By law, anyone may inspect the council's accounts. If you are registered to vote in local council elections, you (or someone acting on your behalf) also have the right to ask the Auditor General questions about the accounts and to raise formal objections.

Inspecting the accounts

Once the council has finalised its accounts, it must advertise that they are available for inspection. After giving reasonable notice, you may inspect the accounts and supporting documents for 20 working days. Copies may be requested, although a copying charge may apply.

Asking the auditor questions

Questions may only be asked about the accounts that are subject to audit. The Auditor General does not have to answer questions about council policies, decisions or procedures unless they directly relate to the accounts, and does not have to say whether something is lawful or reasonable.

Objecting to the accounts

If you believe the council has spent money unlawfully, or that someone has caused a financial loss deliberately or through irresponsible behaviour, you may object. Objections must be made in writing to the Auditor General, explain the reasons clearly, and a copy must also be sent to the council. The Auditor General will decide what action, if any, to take. In some cases, you may appeal to the courts.

You may also object if you believe there is an issue in the accounts that should be reported publicly in the public interest. This process cannot be used to make personal complaints or claims.

Other ways to raise concerns

Instead of making a formal objection, you may provide information to the Auditor General if you believe there are errors in the accounts or concerns about waste or inefficiency. There are no set procedures or deadlines for doing this.

Important information

The cost of dealing with questions and objections is paid by local taxpayers. The Auditor General will only pursue matters that are in the public interest. If you take a matter to court, you may have to pay your own costs.

Cynwyl Elfed Community Council

Certification and approval of annual accounts for 2025-26

Regulation 15(1) of the Accounts and Audit (Wales) Regulations 2014 (as amended) requires that Responsible Financial Officer of Cynwyl Elfed Community Council sign and date the statement of accounts, and certify that it presents fairly the financial position of Cynwyl Elfed Community Council at the end of the year and the Council's income and expenditure for the year. The Regulations required that this be completed by 30 June 2026.

Due to the books being with the Internal Auditor at the time of the June monthly meeting of the Council, the Responsible Financial Officer has not signed and certified the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2026. The statement of accounts will be prepared and the Responsible Financial Officer will sign and certify the statement of accounts by 20 July 2026.
